

Time For a Change!

In 2019, for every $1.00 earned by men, women earn $0.79

26% of women work part-time compared to 14% of men, making them overall much less likely to be offered a workplace retirement plan.

Women keep

71% of their assets in cash compared to 60% for men.

44% of women said that financial matters cause them the most stress.

82% of women are confident in managing their day-to-day budgeting, but their confidence slips when it comes to longer term financial planning.

62% of women feel a little confused when it comes to navigating their future financial path.

75% of women want to learn more about money and investing.

92% of women want to learn more about financial planning.

Time for Change will only happen when you have a Call to Action!
Work with our all-women team of financial planners to help you create the lifestyle you desire and deserve.

Connect with us for a complimentary 30 minute chat and we can help identify financial pain points that can be fixed.

